Name the food being talked about in this passage:

55. Remembrance of Things Past:

But when from a long-distant past nothing subsists, after the people are dead, after the things are broken and scattered, taste and smell alone, more fragile but more enduring, more unsubstantial, more persistent, more faithful, remain poised a long time, like souls, remembering, waiting, hoping, amid the ruins of all the rest; and bear unflinchingly, in the tiny and almost impalpable drop of their essence, the vast structure of recollection.

56. "A Christmas Carol"

...like a speckled cannon-ball, so hard and firm, blazing in half of a half-a-quartern of ignited brandy, and bedight with Christmas holly stuck into the top...

57. The Metamorphoses

Not so fate permitted, for the girl had broken her fast and wandering, childlike, through the orchard trees from a low branch had picked a ---- and peeled the yellow rind and found the seeds and nibbled seven.

58. The Lion, The Witch, and the Wardrobe

Edmund was already feeling uncomfortable from having eaten too many sweets, and when he heard that the Lady he had made friends with was a dangerous witch he felt even more uncomfortable. But he still wanted to taste that ---- more than he wanted anything else.

59. William Carlos Williams- This is just to say

I have eaten the ----
that were in the icebox and which you were probably saving for breakfast
Forgive me
they were delicious
so sweet and so cold.

60. President George H. W. Bush

I do not like ----. And I haven't liked it since I was a little kid and my mother made me eat it. I am President of the United States, and I'm not going to eat any more ----.

61. Julia Child

The measure of achievement is not winning awards. It's doing something that you appreciate, something you believe is worthwhile. I think of my ----. I did that at least twenty-eight times before I finally conquered it.

62. "Fraggle Rock"

Red: All the --- are gone? We've got to call a meeting!

Wembley: Good idea!

Mokey: We can't do that! Everyone would panic!

Wembley: Good idea!

Mokey: Wembley, be quiet!

Wembley: Good idea!
