8. What is the name of the English property Dracula purchases through Harker?
9. What is the name of Dracula’s manservant?
10. It’s well known that Dracula needs to sleep in a coffin during the day, but less well known that the coffin must contain what substance?
11. In this memorandum by Lucy Westenra, what type of flowers is she referring to?
17 September, Night.--I write this and leave it to be seen, so that no one may by any chance get into trouble through me. This is an exact record of what took place tonight. I feel I am dying of weakness, and have barely strength to write, but it must be done if I die in the doing. I went to bed as usual, taking care that the flowers were placed...
12. Who is being described?
He is a seemingly arbitrary man, this is because he knows what he is talking about better than any one else. He is a philosopher and a metaphysician, and one of the most advanced scientists of his day, and he has, I believe, an absolutely open mind. This, with an iron nerve, a temper of the ice-brook, and indomitable resolution, self-command, and toleration exalted from virtues to blessings, and the kindest and truest heart that beats, these form his equipment for the noble work that he is doing for mankind, work both in theory and practice, for his views are as wide as his all-embracing sympathy.

13. In the film, what does Dracula claim that he never drinks?
14. What movie was shot at night on the same sets as the original Dracula?
