

The Great Chain of Trivia

1. Everybody's favorite contest celebrating its 100th game tonight
2. Founder of Rhode Island
3. In 1965, he had his biggest hit with "King of the Road"
4. Say, 5 o'clock on a Friday when it's time to enjoy a High Life
5. Grisham novel with a title lifted from Ecclesiastes
6. Major port channel between Staten Island and New Jersey
7. Merlin was his consigliere
8. Command after reaching the eighth row
9. Paul Simon did the vocals, guitar and whistling on this solo hit
10. Helicopter disaster in Somalia
11. Frequent abusers of neuralyzers
12. In the beginning of this movie, everybody hates Juror #8
13. Famous sermon first given in Northampton, MA
14. Goofy countrywide 1986 event linking Americans together
15. Album you can "Levon" your record player
16. Orchestral movements you can get a Handel on
17. Commonly known as "The Moonman"
18. MacArthur grant
19. Pretentious Ipad techie
20. Don Knotts-Tim Conway posse
21. Small group of Chinese counter-revolutionaries
22. "Pretty sneaky, sis"
23. Children's pencil game or to slowly solve a crime
24. Gumdrops brand acquired by Tootsie
25. Virginia opponent to the Constitution
26. He led a club with culture

27. Song about a bitter, poorly-named man
28. Francis Ford Coppola time-travel movie
29. Show with ironic “Love and Marriage” theme song
30. P.D. James dystopian novel
31. Poem that ends with a whimper
32. Sci-fi concept in “The Hobbit” and “City of Ember”, among many others
33. Best-selling novel in both 1931 and 1932
34. Pill-shaped licorice candy
35. Buxom Bond babe
36. Most Academy Award nominations without ever winning
37. Cottontail’s brother
38. Neo followed it
39. “The Dude” calls it a “Caucasian”
40. Facebook campaign got her on SNL
41. Archie’s girls
42. Resident of Neptune
43. Relationship guide that spent two years on the bestseller list
44. Five-time Wimbledon champ
45. His abusive father was the basis for “Big Daddy”
46. Patti Page favorite
47. Part of the Nutcracker
48. If you’re going to San Francisco, this is recommended
49. Morning-after shot
50. Garish bane of parole-jumpers
51. Treasonous act of a Christian
52. Famous dispute over frozen strawberries (among other things)
53. In 1966, he was Alfie. In 2005, he was Alfred.

54. Irish revolutionary
55. Gin and juice
56. Doomed astronaut
57. You may not retransmit any account of their game without written consent
58. UN precursor
59. Bass-heavy White Stripes song
60. Lincoln's major force
61. Ash in medieval times
62. Fourth offering by the Boss
63. Tom Cruise sci-fi "Groundhog Day" movie
64. EPCOT
65. Place for Troy, Abed and Star-burns
66. They'll send up a white smoke signal when they're ready
67. Baseball team with the most World Series championships that isn't the Yankees
68. Ambassador Satch
69. Nobody really remembers the commander of Gemini 8
70. Rocker who just happens to hold 7 patents for model trains
71. Genoa City soap
72. Condition when your limbs won't seem to calm down
73. Unethical advice to defeat Daniel-san
74. One of Bert's many jobs around London
75. Upward airflow in a smokestack
76. It's what's on tap
77. Tankard
78. Jimmy Kimmel was this brainiac's sidekick once
79. It's the name of the bell, not the clock tower
80. He sent a Louisiana fellow to the Promised Land

81. Flannel-wearing burnout at Saturday detention
82. He was manufactured at the Fábrica Robótica De La Madre
83. In structural mechanics, it's described by radius times force
84. Drifters song that charted higher for Jay and the Americans
85. Nickname for NASCAR's New Hampshire Motor Speedway
86. Marshall Mathers biopic
87. Benchmark for a rodeo bull rider
88. 1944 film about the Doolittle raid
89. Main digs for the Emperor of Japan
90. Darth Vader's theme song
91. Famously whistled in "Bridge on the River Kwai"
92. Take five strokes on a par 3
93. Increase your bet when you have 11 and the dealer has a 5
94. Where you might find Willy and the Poor Boys
95. Gain control over a commodity to manipulate prices
96. The underground economy
97. It wiped out half of Europe
98. Dying wish of Mercutio towards the Montagues and the Capulets
99. Led Zep's fifth
100. Movie responsible for a jillion Williams Trivia questions
101. He wanted to Make a Deal
102. Concert venue opened by Queen Victoria in 1871
103. "Hey Hey Hey!" ("Drugging women ain't okay!")
104. Comic relief - I suppose - in the "Pitch Perfect" movies
105. She played a con artist in "American Hustle"
106. Thomas Jefferson called him "a blind, bald, crippled, toothless man"
107. Herman Melville called him "the meteor of the war."

108. It overturned Plessy v. Ferguson
109. Checkers and Pachisi
110. Forum for Michael Phelps
111. Federal land directly west of Seattle
112. Before “Fresh off the Boat” he played “Asian Jim Halpert”
113. F.U. to Oscar
114. Feline pusher of sugary cereal
115. Leif Garrett and Scott Baio were popular cover boys for this mag
116. The granddaddy of all zany, time-based game shows
117. Quantum timepiece
118. U2’s “Vertigo” CD
119. Jett-sung track heard in “Guardians of the Galaxy”
120. Sweet sundae topper cultivated in the Northwest
121. Wise-cracking Friend
122. “The Big Sleep” writer
123. “The King of Queens” spun off this show
124. Sly & the Family Stone song for “Participation trophy” day
125. Windjammer that is the world’s oldest active sailing ship
126. Common black liquid used for drafting or drawing
127. It is used in steganography
128. Genesis song and album
129. According to Billboard, the only charting song for the Grateful Dead
130. Queen for nine days
131. Watery tart who bestowed Excalibur
132. Popular family vacation destination in the Adirondacks
133. Brit pop star and/or Bluth family scion
134. He has a statue in Chicago

135. Israel's West Bank is the west bank of this waterway
136. Christie Brinkley did the cover art for this Billy Joel album
137. Paraphrasing Prospero, what Sam Spade called the Maltese Falcon
138. Tom Wolfe book about Mercury astronauts
139. Plinko
140. Ghoulish narrator on "Thriller"
141. Many of his masterpieces were created during his time in Arles
142. Guitar World magazine named him greatest of all time
143. British ski jumper
144. First seven words spoken on the Moon
145. Abbott's response to Costello when he says "I don't know"
146. Semi-charmed group
147. Place to hide from mallards
148. Useless 50's-era advice in case of a nuclear blast
149. Dr. John made it in 1973
150. It was last used in 1953 at the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II
151. Verdi opera
152. Disembodied advice given to Red Five
153. Legal doctrine that says you can sample a little bit of an old song in your song
154. Are you going there, various spices?
155. MSNBC morning personality
156. Serving of java
157. They bring it out with white gloves so sweaty Canadians can lift it overhead
158. Searcher for Livingstone
159. He was a steel-drivin' man
160. America's most celebrated living composer
161. Everybody's favorite contest celebrating its 100th game tonight