

Audax Amplify Forum for Underrepresented Minorities

When: Friday, January 29th

Where: Virtual Forum

Audax Amplify Forum is for college sophomores who identify as Black/African American, Hispanic/Latino and/or Native American. It provides the opportunity to meet with Audax investment professionals and learn about private equity. Selected participants will receive a Zoom invitation for an intensive half-day workshop including break out groups with the investment team. The forum will give attendees an overview of finance and how private equity fits into the alternative asset industry, as well as an understanding of the skills necessary for a successful career in private equity. This is an exciting opportunity to learn more about our Summer Analyst program and network with investment professionals from the firm.

The Audax Amplify Forum is open to current sophomores, of all majors, who identify as Black/African American, Hispanic/Latino and/or Native American and who are interested in learning more about Audax Private Equity.

Please apply using this link to apply: Audax Career Site.

When applying to participate in the forum through our applicant tracking system, please make sure to attach ONE document that includes the following:

1. Short response detailing why you are interested in this program (250 words or less)
2. Resume

Applications are due by January 5th at 11:59 PM.
