

audio boni: DON'T name the artist!

Tired of having to know all those pesky artist names for the on-airs? Here's a slight change of pace: supply the names of these songs along with some other pertinent information.

A note: This is one of the harder bonis you'll encounter tonight – don't get discouraged, and remember, you can always sacrifice 2/3rds of your point total in exchange for the option of consulting Google should you deem it advantageous to do so. Shazam and other music-identifying software, of course, remains strictly prohibited.
