
SPELLING COUNTS

Hour 1

For our first bonus, we're starting things off easy. We expect that many of you know the correct answers to these questions, but do you know how to spell them correctly? You'll won't get full credit for your answer if it is spelled wrong!

Section 1 — Hard Words

Answer the following questions. Spelling counts!

1. What is the word for someone who you pay to drive you in an automobile, usually a luxury vehicle or a limousine?
2. What is the name for the green vegetable that looks like little trees?
3. What is the military rank given to the KFC mascot?
4. What is the name of the southernmost continent?
5. What should you not do at a Scripps bee?
6. What is the name to describe someone that is from another country that is also the name of a band?
7. What is the title given to someone who was the ruler of Ancient Egypt?
8. What is it called when you can use your left and right hands equally?
9. What is the name of the element whose atomic symbol is F?

Section 2 — Songs

Questions 10 through 17 are on the audio portion of this bonus. For each of the songs, identify the title of the song and the artist. Spelling counts!

Section 3 — Everyone's a Diacritic!

Each of the following words needs at least one diacritic in order to be spelled correctly. Please specify which letter(s) require a diacritic. You do not need to specify the correct diacritic, but if a word has multiples of one letter, you must be precise enough so that we know which one you are talking about.
