

Who, What, When, Where, Y?

Part I: Who?

Name the person who said or wrote each quote, and the person who is the subject of the quote. (1 point for each quote author/speaker, 1 point for each subject)

When the subject of a quote appears in a sentence, they are replaced with PERSON. A word bank is provided at the end of this section. Each instance of a name in the word bank is used no more than once. (Hint: The subject of the quote is more likely to be famous than the source, but not always.)

1.	I explained many times to the people, that PERSON has biggest talent in fingers that I have ever seen.
2.	I have a lot of respect for PERSON . PERSON reminds me occasionally of that 'Monty Python' character where all his arms and legs are cut off and then says to his opponent: Let's call it a draw.
3.	PERSON [has] an urge to communicate. I think PERSON [is] a change from what it would be like dating a normal guy who doesn't talk too much.
4.	On a human level, PERSON is attracted more to equinoxes, being smitten by justice and seeking day and night in equal share. By lifting one's eyes skywards one might notice PERSON playing hide-and-seek with either Venus or Mercury. The cosmos is PERSON'S garden and it is in its movement that PERSON feels alive, astride a comet.
5.	I know good and well that PERSON'S not murdering me, at all [...] So when that day presents itself, I guess we can revisit the topic.
6.	If there were a conservatory in Hell, and if one of its talented students were to compose a programme symphony based on the story of the Ten Plagues of Egypt, and if he were to compose a symphony like PERSON'S , then he would have fulfilled his task brilliantly and would delight the inhabitants of Hell.
7.	PERSON'S a jackass.
8.	I always tell people that if PERSON move[s] anywhere it would be Toronto.
9.	Admittedly, it's been eight years since I could call myself a teenager, so I might be out of the doom-loop of angst, but since when was the best way to describe a beautiful face as possessing the sheen of a sausage roll?
10.	We're more popular than PERSON .
11.	Brittleboned methhead who smells like a roll of nickels.
12.	I go so far as to say that any library is a good library that does not contain a volume by PERSON . Even if it contains no other book.

13.	PERSON'S Instagram feed consists of posts captioned "mood" and pictures of PERSON drinking from two huge bottles of milk. PERSON plays with the effectiveness of a sovereign wealth fund.
14.	I hate the way that PERSON walk[s], the way that PERSON talk[s], I hate the way that PERSON dress[es].
15.	As PERSON decodes for us, PERSON had always skated past the point, never come at it head-on, but 'curved around' it to home in on PERSON'S destined target: we are not getting so near yet so far so as to mutter disgust and drive a wedge between home and owner.
16.	You more have to come at the aesthetic stuff obliquely, to talk around it or—as Aquinas did with his own ineffable subject—to try to define it in terms of what it is not.
17.	PERSON [is] stupid. PERSON [is] stupid. PERSON switch[es] off everything.
18.	I've had more women by accident than PERSON had on purpose.
