

Hour 3 Bonus - Together at the Movies

Section 1 - Portmanteau

The following are plot descriptions of two movies, combined. The titles of these movies have a word or two in common; combine the titles of the movies into a portmanteau.

Example: Q: A lion cub's father dies at the hands of his uncle. Before reclaiming his throne, the lion must overcome his speech impediment.

A: The Lion King's Speech

Questions

- 1) A twee caper to retrieve a painting by the concierge and bellboy of a hotel; but the hotel is run by a vampire
- 2) A Thoreau-inspired boy seeks an independent life in the wilderness, only to find forbidden gay love.
- 3) Three teenage girls, all courted by the same titular man, vow their revenge, only to discover deep connections between him and a North Korean operative embroiled in the blood diamond trade.
- 4) A phonologist tries to fix a young woman's accent before she leaves Sacramento for the east coast.
- 5) A famed Elizabethan playwright is entangled in a love affair while trying to stop the outbreak of World War III.
- 6) "Raindrops Keep Falling [on the heads of young OSS spies]."
- 7) A young man leaves the orphanage where he was raised (and trained as an unlicensed physician) to go to a wealthy college, where he becomes embroiled in an unlikely love triangle
- 8) POWs are tasked with building a bridge in a campy, nostalgic town with a seedy underbelly
- 9) In a life-size replica of New York, a singer meets a saxophonist on VJ day, starting a long, tempestuous romance
- 10) A Jewish man in Minnesota begins to question his faith after a humanoid, superpowered Alien lands in his backyard.
- 11) A Christmastime anthology of lonely people meeting after their partners enter into an affair
- 12) Racial tension in Brooklyn around a pizzeria is exacerbated when an alien that can imitate other organisms begins to go on a killing spree
- 13) A boy rebels against his prescribed role as dragon slayer; he chooses to deliver a legendary blade, but it is stolen, and he must embark on a martial arts adventure to get it back

- 14) A band of rodents get into an extended car chase after freeing the harem of a dictator
- 15) A spy team of rodents are faced with a catastrophic avalanche
- 16) A black detective is wrongfully accused of a crime in a museum where the exhibits come to life
- 17) Romance blossoms for servicepeople at a remote station during World War II, only to be interrupted when they have to battle kaiju.
- 18) In the gut-wrenching poverty of the American dust-bowl era, Greek gods battle for dominion over heaven and earth.
- 19) While performing in England, Bob Dylan goes back in time and bests his high school nemesis.
- 20) Marianne Dashwood finally gets over her love for John Willoughby when she comes to realize he was a ghost all along.

Section 2 - Cameos

The following are still images of cameos - appearances by otherwise well-known public/pop cultural figures in media. Each question is worth two points; name the figure who is appearing, and the movie that they are appearing in.

21)

22)

23)

24)

25)

26)

27)

28)

29)

30)