

34. The following epitaph is written on a well-known composer's monument:

*A child, I sang the treble part,
A youth, the counter claim'd my art;
A man, the tenor was my place,
But now I'm station'd in the bass,
Kind passenger, if Christ you love,
Pray that my soul may chant above.*

Who is the composer?

35. What composer is said to have died after he caught a cold when his wife locked him out of the house?

36. What composer said, "Splendid though your grapes certainly are, I don't take my wine in pills"?

37. Who was the first composer to imitate everyday speech in the form of music?

38. What composer proclaimed himself "three times homeless," as "a native of Bohemia in Austria, an Austrian among Germans, and a Jew throughout the world"?

39. What sport did George Gershwin play with the father of atonal music?

40. What composer is famous for a musical study of birdsong?