

Part I - Twin Flags: Some flags, whether due to common history or complete accident, have very similar appearances. Identify which nation each of these flags belongs to.

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.

8.

9.

10.

11.

12.

13.

14.

15.

16.

Part II - America and Friends: The American flag has inspired a number of flags worldwide- can you identify them all? The last two flags (21 and 22) are flags of subnational entities- for these, identify both the nation and the area to which they belong.

17.

18.

19.

20.

21.

22.

Part III - Short-lived Flags: Some nations don't manage to stand the test of time. Identify these flags relegated to the annals of history.

23.

24.

25.

26.

27.

Part IV - Fictional Flags: Flags are staples of fiction with extensive histories and lore. Identify to which nation or entity each of these flags belong, and state the work of origin of each.

28.

29.

30.

31.

32.

33.

34.

35.

36.

37.