

CHOSEN TO THE GARGOYLE.

---

Williams College Sophomores, Hold
Their Annual Promenade.

Special to The New York Times.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., May 30.—The Williams College sophomore promenade was concluded this morning at 5 o'clock. Many came from New York, Chicago, and further West to attend. The Dramatic Club presented "My Friend from India" to a large audience.

After the ball game with Amherst the electing of Gargoyle Society candidates took place on the campus. In the evening the Musical Club gave a concert and the day was concluded with a dance at a hotel. Among the seventeen elected to the Gargoyle Society are the following from New York, all juniors: Gerald Mygatt, David B. Scott, and William Niles Elder.

---

The New York Times

Published: May 31, 1907

Copyright © The New York Times